RLSL Missions Day | November 9th

Missions and serving don't happen just in faraway places. In fact, your mission field is wherever you find yourself planted. God wants to use you, where you're at right now. We are a group of people spread out across many cities, but we are all of one mission: to shine the light of Christ wherever he has placed us. On Saturday, November 9th, Real Life Church will be hosting WAPAC Missions day for youth groups across western Washington. We will meet at 9:30 at the church for an orientation and then be sent out to various mission projects across Vancouver in partnership with numerous organizations that are doing amazing work right here in our hometown. Later that afternoon, we will gather back together at Real Life for a worship service and lunch and will be wrapping up around 3:30. The cost is $20 which will get you a t-shirt and your meals for the day. If you have questions email Ethan at ethan@seekreallife.com. Register today at <https://rlc.pub/signup>
